Job Context

The invigilator's role is to ensure the fair and proper conduct of examinations in an environment that enables a student to perform at their best, in accordance with the regulations set out by the Joint Council for Qualifications.

Purpose of job

To support the Exams Officer with the day-to-day operation of examinations.

Duties

1. To assist with setting up examination venues by laying out stationery, equipment and examination papers in accordance with set procedures;
2. To closely follow and enforce exam procedures and regulations;
3. To assist candidates prior to the start of examination by directing them to their seats and advising them about possessions permitted in examination venues
4. To ensure that candidates do not talk once inside examination venues;
5. To invigilate during examinations, deal with queries raised by candidates and deal with examination irregularities in accordance with procedures;
6. To record details of late arrivals and early leavers and collect scripts from early leavers;
7. To escort candidates from venues during the examination as required and supervise candidates whilst outside the examination venue;
8. To escort candidates on toilet breaks ensuring no unauthorised material is consulted and that examination regulations are observed at all times;
9. To supervise candidates leaving examination venues, ensuring that candidates do not remove equipment or stationery from the venue without authorisation and ensure that candidates leave venues in an orderly and quiet manner;
10. To assist the Examination Officer with other examination processes as and when required. These activities may include:
 - taking examination papers and stationery to and from examination venues;
 - sorting exam scripts into attendance register order;
 - sorting candidate cards into candidate number order;

Flexibility

The post holder must be prepared to adopt a flexible approach and a willingness to carry out a variety of tasks.

In order to deliver services effectively, a degree of flexibility is needed and the post holder may be required to perform work not specifically referred to above. Such duties, however, will fall within the scope of the post, at the appropriate level.
